To

The Clerk of Trustees,

Agricultural College,

Logan, Utah.

Dear Sir;

Please consider

me an applicant as

Teacher of English

in your College for the ensuing year.

My work in Salt Lake has been of a number of years duration, both in Public Schools and in private tutoring.

Allow me to refer you to W. I. Mc Conick and to Capt. and Mrs. Iyer who can personally testify to my quality as an instructor.

My patrons in private work were very numerous, and among the most prominent citizens of our city.

Some of the families to whom I may safely refer you are W. I. Mc Conick's, Capt Iyer's, Col. Bruback's, Dr. J. B. Beatty's, W. M. Bradley's, W^m Medley's, and Judge Hall's.

These were among my many enthusiastic patrons, and will, I am confident, furnish you with letters, should my application be considered.

Very respectfully,
Cordele Green.

Salt Lake, U.,

Southern Hotel,

July the seventh,

Nineteen hundred five.

Aug. 7, 1905.

Miss Cordelia Grew,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dear Madam:-

I have been requested to inform you that all the instructors for the Department of English have been employed for next year. Your application will be filed, and should there be an opening for you at any time you will be notified.

Yours truly,

Secretary to the President.
